

ATV-Friendly Towns!

Did you know that the Hatfield-McCoy Trails offer many ATV-friendly towns? What? Yes, you read that correctly!

While visiting the trails, you can venture into many towns, cities and communities for the things that you need. Whether you are riding an ATV, UTV, dirt bike or ORV, you simply access these towns by way of our community connectors. Be sure to grab a map before hitting the trails! While in town, feel free to explore! Stop by a local restaurant to grab a bite to eat, swing by a gas station to fuel up your machine, learn more about our area's heritage by visiting one of our museums or drive through town to scope out a lodging facility for your next visit! To plan your route to an ATV-friendly town, visit our website to check out our most current trail maps: <https://trailsheaven.com/trail-maps/>. For a full list of ATV-friendly towns located around the Hatfield-McCoy Trails, please see the chart below!
