

One of the largest continuous areas of the HMT network along with Pinnacle Creek, Indian Ridge and Warrior trail systems and connectors. Pocahontas Trail System links up to three other Hatfield- McCoy Trail Systems—Indian Ridge, Pinnacle Creek and Warrior— making for the most continuous miles of trails east of the Mississippi. The trailhead is located in Coaldale, just outside of the town of Bramwell, historically known for its numerous millionaire homes from the early 20th century. This trail system has direct access to gas, food and lodging.

The Pocahontas Trailhead, located at 11110 Coal Heritage Rd, Bramwell, WV 24715, offers a 2+ acre parking lot, staffed trailhead and on-site restrooms. This facility offers: Trail Permits, Complete Line of Hatfield McCoy Trails Merchandise, Maps, Brochures and Area Information. The Pocahontas Trailhead is staffed seven days a week (except major holidays) from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
